PROFILE

Passionate Web Developer with a diverse skill set in programming, UI/UX design, and problem-solving, developed through roles in the UK and Myanmar. Holding a B.Sc. in Business IT and advancing my skills with an M.Sc. in Computer Science, I offer a robust understanding of web technologies and user-centered design. Experienced in agile development environments, I have contributed to projects at Myanlyca Co. Ltd and Spiceworks Myanmar, focusing on clean, functional code, effective website management, and responsive troubleshooting. I am committed to delivering impactful digital experiences and am excited to contribute to a UK-based tech team aiming for excellence in web development.
